WATERBURY

The Twenty-Five club met at the inn last night and after their banquet heard a very helpful lecture on "Public Health," by Dr. Charles F. Dalton of Burlington, secretary of the state board of health. He told how much sickness cost, estimating the cost of a case of typhoid fever at $100. Other diseases estimated and multiplied by number in the state gave a large amount which should be saved. Dr. Dalton is a very pleasing speaker and his words were closely followed by members of the club and their guests. The meeting was in charge of E. W. Huntley, who secured Dr. Dalton.

Halloween parties were much in evidence last week. Wednesday night at the regular meeting of Queen Esther chapter, O. E. S., a social time followed with Halloween games. Friday afternoon many of the schools observed the time, special stress being laid at the Duxbury Corner school, taught by Miss Mattie Holt. Fortunes were told, most of them conducive to greater effort among the girls and boys. Friday evening the Hoelchen campfire girls had a Halloween frolic in the social room of the Congregational church. All were dressed as ghosts or witches and received the guests. Miss Barbara Luce acted as fortune teller. Games were played and refreshments served. At their pleasant home on Blush hill that same evening, Mrs. H. D. Mott and Miss Ruth Mott received twenty-four guests, most of whom came in costume. Vocal solos were given by Miss Kathleen LeBaron, accompanied by Miss Mott. Recitations were also given by Miss LeBaron. Music was furnished by the victrola. Decorations and refreshments were in keeping with the time. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Carroll on Main street, their daughter, Miss Inez Carroll, Miss Nellie Swasey and Miss Benah Edwards were hostesses to a number of invited guests. The decorations and refreshments were in Hal-loween style and the games were along that line. In the guessing of riddles, Miss Marion Wilkins won the prize. Saturday evening the Waterbury Center grange had a jolly time. The one planned by Dillingham grange at the Congregational church camp was given up because of the weather.

Mothers' meeting of the Perian club was held with Mrs. D. D. Groat Friday afternoon. A number of guests were present. Music was furnished by Mrs. Randall's victrola. Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. F. C. Lamb, accompanied by Mrs. F. E. Atkins, and there were readings by Miss Ollie Somerville. Refreshments were served by the club.

Under the direction of Miss Lena Wallace, a glee club has been formed in the high school, with the following officers: President, Miss Nellie Swasey; vice-president, Miss Stella Griffith; treasurer, Miss Lestina Bidwell; secretary, Miss Ruth Graves; accompanist, Miss Hazel Cook. They meet each Wednesday night for practice.

Sunday was a day of accidents for dogs. In the morning Buster, the pet Scotch collie of Healey Randall, was struck by a Ford car in front of his home and dragged to the Green Mountain house. He was able to get back to the Randall home but lived only a short time. The same day Rover, the family dog of William McGrath, was killed by a car in the road near his home on the Bolton road.

Paul Swasey was home from the U. V. M. over Sunday.

Miss Marion Wilkins spent the weekend at her home from the Johnson normal school.

The 11th, 12th and 13th of this month the Turner art exhibit will be held in the high school room. There will be lectures in connection with this. A small admission fee will be asked, the proceeds to go for pictures.

COLD WEATHER RHEUMATISM

Why should rheumatism, a disease of the blood, be worse in cold weather than in summer?
The rheumatic poison in the blood is the predisposing cause of the disease. If you have the taint in your blood you may have rheumatism whenever the exciting cause stirs it to action. Cold weather and dampness are exciting causes of rheumatism. They excite to action something already in the blood, something that you must get rid of if you would be free from rheumatism.

What this something is, nobody knows. Not very long ago it was thought to be uric acid. Many doctors now think it is a microscopic organism or a specific bacillus, but they cannot find the bacillus.

It is a known fact that in rheumatism the blood becomes thin rapidly, that building up the blood relieves the rheumatism and that there will be no return of the rheumatism as long as the condition of the blood is maintained. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are recommended for rheumatism because they keep the blood rich and red and free from rheumatic poisons. "Building Up the Blood" tells all about the treatment. Send for a copy today to Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

RANDOLPH

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gifford Observed Their 25th Wedding Anniversary.

About fifty of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gifford gathered at their home on Monday night to assist them in celebrating their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Gifford were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pliny Morse for tea, in honor of their anniversary, and their daughters were informed of the arrangement made by their friends and made the house ready for their guests. Mr. Gifford left the home, to which he was invited, early so that he might go to the Odd Fellows lodge meeting, and on coming into the house saw some of the preparations, but Mrs. Gifford was unconscious of her large company, and when her daughter went after her she returned home to meet a house full of company. A fine musical program was given soon after they arrived which was as follows: Piano duet, Soldiers' Chorus, from "Faust," Mrs. E. E. Brooks and Miss Annie Walsh; trio, greetings, Mendelssohn; Miss M. Blanche Sparhawk, Mrs. J. B. Adams, Mrs. Inez Segar; reading by Miss Josephine Stimes; soprano solo, "Buy My Strawberries," (b) "Down Yaux Hall Way," Miss Blanche Sparhawk; piano duet, a slumber song, (b) "Autumn Serenade," Mrs. Louis Brigham, Miss Edith Marcott; trio, serenade, Raff, Miss Blanche Sparhawk, Mrs. J. B. Adams, Mrs. Inez Segar; solo, Rev. J. H. Thompson, "Shadow Dance," Miss Edith Marcott; solo, Rev. J. H. Thompson; soprano solo, "Sweet Miss Mary" (Neidlinger), (b) "Goodbye Summer" (Lynde), Miss Blanche Sparhawk; piano duet, "A Norwegian Dance" (Greig), (b) "Roses, Strelezki," Mrs. E. E. Brooks, Miss Walsh. Following this, refreshments of cake and coffee were served, and the social hour which followed was interrupted by Rev. Frank Metzger, who gave a short speech, full of pleasing anecdotes and finally presented the gift of silver which had been collected from the guests and some absent friends. Mr. Gifford responded briefly and left with them an invitation to come again New Year's, when he would be home from the California trip, on which he leaves this week and would continue his speech, and give them a description of his journey. About twenty six years ago, Miss Augusta Pribbenow of Wisconsin and Charles Gifford of East Randolph, Vermont, journeyed to California, and took up their residence in the same town, living for some months on the same street, and nearly opposite to each other, but never met in that time, till they both went later to National City, where they met and formed an acquaintance which later resulted in a marriage, twenty-five years ago Nov. 1. The ceremony was performed in San Diego, at the home of the officiating clergyman, a Rev. Mr. Daniels, a Unitarian minister, who afterwards preached in Burlington, Vermont. They lived at National City for a couple of years and there their twin daughters, Miss Myrtle and Myrtle Gifford, were born. Later they lived in Escandido but soon came East and went on to the home farm in East Randolph, where their son, Edson Gifford, was born. Later they returned to National City and lived for some time, and there Miss Celia Gifford was born. Returning again to Vermont they went on to the farm as before, where they lived till six years ago, when they came here and built a house on Emerson Terrace, which they now occupy. Mr. and Mrs. Gifford have a fine family of three daughters, one of whom, Miss Myrtle, is in Palo Alto, Cal., at the Leland Stanford university, where she is taking a course of study in medicine; Miss Myrtle, who is a graduate of Syracuse university and a teacher of art, and Miss Celia, who is now in the high school. One son, Edson Gifford, is attending a preparatory school for college at Freeport, Neb., and the youngest, John, is in the grade school here. One son and one daughter have died. Mr. Gifford has filled many offices of trust in the town, now being on the board of selectmen, and he is also much interested in the Maconic bodies, where he has been an honored officer and in the Odd Fellows lodge, of which he is now a past noble grand and deputy. For years he was the worthy patron of the Eastern Star chapter, where his wife and daughters are members. Mrs. Gifford presides with pleasure over the home and makes her children and husband happy, as well as all the friends who are so many. Among the relatives present at the celebration were: Mr. Gifford's mother, Mrs. Celia Gifford, an aged lady, and Dr. J. P. Gifford, a brother of Mrs. Gifford. Many congratulations were offered for the pleasure of the past and hearty good wishes for the future.

Mrs. W. H. Crawford came from Jericho Tuesday for an over-night stay with her son, Rev. G. F. Crawford, and family, before going on to Boston for the winter.

Mrs. John Wood came from Lebanon last week to remain over with friends till Tuesday, when she returned to her home in White River Junction. Mr. Wood is again absent in the West, where he went to buy a carload of horses.

Mrs. Sarah Briggs, after a summer here with Mrs. Lena Wright, left on Tuesday for Worcester, Mass., where she is to remain with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Granger, through the winter. She was accompanied on her journey by her brother, Hazen Wood.

Arthur Howard of Burlington was in town on a short stay with relatives on Tuesday.
